

From: Nicola Vitale
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/6/01 10:04pm
Subject: Microsoft anti trust case

I am science teacher in new york city. I believe that microsoft donating its software to schools only works to increase the microsoft monopoly.

I think that public schools should do nothing to support private, for profit interests. It is unfair to other companies and to the students themselves.